

Bringing your household effects to the United Kingdom from outside the European Community (EC) when furnishing, or after giving up, a secondary home

(If you are bringing in:

- personal belongings, other than to/from a secondary home, use Form C3;
- private motor vehicles, use Form C104A (if permanently imported on transfer of your home to the EC) or C104F (if temporarily imported) or C179B (if previously exported from the EC);
- pets, use Form C5.)

This form is for you to declare your household effects to Customs and to claim any duty and tax free reliefs that may apply when you are:

- furnishing a secondary home in the UK, or
- giving up a secondary home which is outside the EC.

A secondary home is a home which you own or rent and use only occasionally, ie. it is not in the country where you have your normal home (see the definition of "normal home" overleaf).

Further details of the secondary home relief are given in Customs Notice 3 ('Bringing your belongings and private motor vehicle to the United Kingdom from outside the European Community').

If you want a copy of this notice or more information, ask your local Excise and Inland Customs Advice Centre (look in your phone book under 'Customs and Excise' but not our VAT Offices). If you are phoning from abroad, we have an 'international' Advice Centre based in London which you can contact, telephone number 00 44 171 202 4227.

This form and Notice 3 are also available on the Customs Internet website <http://www.hmce.gov.uk>. Look under "Information for the public-Information".

Please tick correct box and answer all questions unless directed otherwise.

Meaning of words in italics

1. a) In which country do you have your normal home?

(Note: your 'normal home' is not necessarily the country in which you were born or hold citizenship - see the definition on the right of this page)

Relief is freedom from paying duty and tax when you meet the relevant conditions explained in Customs Notice 3.

b) How long have you lived there?

Your normal home is where you usually live - that means where you spend 185 days or more in a period of 12 months because of your work and personal connections. But if you have no work connections or your work and personal connections are in different countries then you usually live where your personal connections are. (However if you are a UK citizen and you are working abroad your normal home can be where you are working so long as you have lived there for 185 days or more in a period of 12 months.) As an example, if you are a UK citizen working and living with your family in the USA for the past 2 years, your normal home is the USA.

c) Do you own a secondary home in the UK? No
Yes

d) Are you renting a secondary home in the UK? No
Yes For how long are you renting it?

The UK is England, Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland (but not the Channel Islands).

Now go to section 2 or 3, whichever applies.

2. Furnishing a secondary home in the UK.

a) Are all of the imported household effects to be used in the secondary home? No list the goods which will not in Part B
Yes

b) Have you owned and used all the household effects outside the EC for 6 months or more? No list in part B any goods owned and used for less than 6 months.
Yes

c) Will you be letting the secondary home to third parties while you or your family are abroad? No
Yes

The EC is the European Community: Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, the Irish Republic, Italy, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, and the UK. Although they have close links with the EC, the following are regarded as outside the EC for VAT purposes: the Åland Islands, Andorra, the Canary Islands, the Channel Islands, French Guiana, Guadeloupe, Martinique, Mount Athos, Reunion and Turkey.

3. Giving up a secondary home which is outside the EC.

Were some or all of your household effects previously exported from the EC? No list all goods in part B
Yes list in part B any goods which were not and any goods obtained in the EC under a tax free scheme on which duty and/or tax remains unpaid

Household effects are furnishings and fittings for the home, and also personal items such as cameras, linen, jewellery and clothing.
